

EXAMPLES OF EXPLORATORY QUESTIONS*

1. What do you love? Hate? What do you want, desire, crave, lust, wish for? What desires do you serve and obey?
2. What do you seek, aim for and pursue?
3. Where do you bank your hopes?
4. What do you fear? What do you not want? What do you tend to worry about?
5. What do you feel like doing?
6. What do you think you need? What are your “felt” needs?
7. What are your plans, agendas, strategies and intentions designed to accomplish?
8. What makes you tick? What sun does your planet revolve around? What do you organize your life around?
9. Where do you find refuge, safety, comfort, escape, pleasure, or security?
10. What or whom do you trust? Whose performance matters? On whose shoulders does the well being of your world rest? Who can make it better, make it work, make it safe, make it successful?
11. Whom must you please? Whose opinion of you counts? From whom do you desire approval and fear rejection? Against whose value system do you measure yourself? In whose eyes are you living? Whose love and approval do you need?
12. Who are your role models? What kind of person do you think you ought to be or want to be?
13. On your deathbed, what would you look back and see as having made your life worthwhile?
14. What gives your life meaning?

* These questions come from David Pawlison’s book, Seeing with New Eyes, and are helpful in exposing heart conditions, desires, “idols” and fundamental beliefs.

15. How do you define and weigh success and failure, right or wrong, desirable or undesirable, in any particular situation?
16. What would make you feel rich, secure or prosperous? What must you get to make life sing?
17. What would bring you the greatest pleasure, happiness and delight? What would bring you the greatest pain or misery? Whose coming into political power would make everything better?
18. Whose victory or success would make your life happy? How do you define victory and success?
19. What do you see as your rights? What do you feel entitled to? In what situations do you feel pressured or tense? Confident or relaxed? When you are pressured, where do you turn? What do you think about? What are your escapes? What are you escaping from?
20. What do you want to get out of life? What payoff do you seek out of the things you do?
21. What do you pray for?
22. What do you think about most often? What preoccupies or obsesses you? In the morning, to what does your mind drift instinctively?
23. What do you talk about? What is important to you? What attitudes do you communicate?
24. How do you spend your time? What are your characteristic fantasies, either pleasurable or fearful? What do you daydream about? What do your night dreams revolve around?
25. What are the functional beliefs that control how you interpret your life and determine how you act?
26. In what do you place your trust or set your hopes? What do you turn to or seek? Where do you take refuge?
27. How do you live for yourself? Do you feel like you are a slave to anyone or anything? Who or what?
28. What instinctively seems to feel right to you? What are your opinions, the things you feel are true?
29. Where do you find your identity? How do you define who you are?